I too view Mother Teresa as a prime example of the servant leadership theory. Her life followed all ten characteristics of a servant leader: listening, empathy, healing, awareness, persuasion, conceptualization, foresight, stewardship, commitment to growth of people, and building community (PSU WC, 2013 P3).

A True Servant Leader: Mother Teresa

Leadership Style Mother Teresa was a situational leader. She helped people according to their situation, for example if they were starving she would provide food for them, if they had no place to stay she would provide a home for them to stay at, if they were ill she took her time to practice medicine in order to help heal them.
