THE RAINCLOUD OF KNOWABLE THINGS. Call forth in your meditation the raincloud of knowable things. I believe this term was coined by the great Eastern Master Patanjali who is considered by some to be the initiator of the Aryan Age teaching through his famous sutras. The calling of the raincloud knowable things, in truth, is the anchoring of your soul and monadic lightbodies.

This entire invocation refers, esoterically ~ that is, from the standpoint of energy ~ to what Pantanjali, in the Yoga Sutras, called the "raincloud of knowable things." This raincloud is that overriding, overshadowing and revelatory storehouse of energy, as is the immediate cause of all events on Earth, and indicates the emergence of that which is new, better and correct on behalf of the greater good including each individual, as well.

The Raincloud of Knowable Things differs in format from the preceding two volumes, as it does not reproduce seminars but consists of the Centre's weekend workshop programmes, which are described in full with all the explanatory talks and experiential exercises. For me this is the most important of the four volumes.
